NEW BENEDICT IN COURT.
evigny, Married Monday, Provided His Bride With Crackers and Water.

The troubles of the Sevigny newlyweds were aired in the police court yesterday morning, when Sevigny, who has been married since Monday, was found guilty of non-support and given 60 days in the county jail, unless he furnishes a satisfactory bond of $100 to support his wife for six months. Sevigny wanted to consult with Attorney W. A. King, but King is out of town for a day or so, so that the accused will spend a night or two in the cells anyway.

Mrs. Sevigny and Selectman R. E.
Mitchell were the chief witnesses. The bride's story was one of neglect from the start, with no food in the house except crackers and water, until Superintendent Chamberlain of the town farm took provisions over to her Wednesday.
Sevigny's explanation was that he was looking for a job and would settle down when he obtained one. He claimed he told his wife to telephone the grocery provisions, but he failed to show how they were to be paid for.

Red Rose Delights Theatre Audience.
The Red Rose, under the management of J. C. Fisher, who produced Florida and other noted successes, held the boards at Gray's opera house Thursday night. The songs were catchy, the scenery and costumes elaborate, and the entire production was greatly enjoyed by a good size audience.

Went by Special Train to Hartford.
A number of people took advantage of the special train to Hartford Thursday night. Primarily the train was for the use of the members of Company L and their friends, who attended the annual review of the First regiment, C. N. G. held in the immense armory at the state capital. This proved to be a night well worth seeing. Others went to Hartford to see a show or visit friends, returning with the train about 1 o'clock.

MOOSUP

St. Joseph's Hall and All Hallows' New School Building Formally Opened With Pleading Entertainment.

The formal opening of St. Joseph's hall, which is located in the new All Hallows' parochial school building, took place Wednesday evening. The hall, which will seat 800, is the largest and most modern of any in the town. It is with justifiable pride that every Roman Catholic viewed in its completion what for several months has been their highest ambition. Wednesday evening every available seat was filled long before the hour when the entertainment was to start, and standing room was at a premium. The Moosup National band paraded from their room in Hill's block to the hall, where they rendered spirited music.
The stage was beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants. The following programme was rendered, eliciting highest praise: Overture, band; Brise Enivrante, choir; violin solo, Miss Leona Parodi; saxophone solo, Henry Gaudette; Le Tambour Major, opera in two acts; Clarissa, Diane B. Lafreniere; Sergeant Leroux, E. P. Grenier; Jean, Paul Davignon; Habette, Clara Daigneault; Julien, Jean Daigneault; Victor, Harry Mathieu; Gaspard, Alfred Dubois; Antoinette, Rose Moquin; Jacqueline, Yvonne Couture; Marcel, Nicolas Caron.
The chorus was composed of Miss V. Mathewson, Audina Piche, Lydia Bigness, Marguerite Dupras, Esther Zerle, Adrienne Lamere, Eva Bertrand, Antoinette Moquin, Irene Maquin, Alvanna Berger, Ernest Mathieu, Miss Yvonne B. Lafreniere skilfully accompanied on the piano in the ministerial parts of the operetta. Soldiers appearing were Joseph Bernier, Dan-niel Simard, Louis Piche, Reynald Mathieu, Armand Goyette, Joseph Gauthier, Vocal duet, Ed Smith and J.
Gorman; vocal duet, John and Katherine Fanning.
